Day Trips: November 2102 - January 2013

Camden Yards Tour

Oriole Park at Camden Yards is the first of the "retro" major league ballparks constructed during the 1990s and early 2000s. The Orioles are celebrating the ballpark's 20th anniversary. Camden Yards was built on land that once served as the rail yard for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad's Camden Station. There is a lot of walking on this tour. Lunch will be on your own at a local restaurant.

Pentagon Tour

The tours program, under the purview of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs, hosts more than 100,000 visitors annually. The tour route is approximately one and one half miles in length and lasts for approximately 90 minutes. Each tour consists of more than 20 pages of script that cover items of interest to include the mission of the Department of Defense and each of its branches of service, and numerous displays that highlight and depict significant moments in military history. The tours program is a Joint service operation consisting of approximately 30 hand-picked, active duty personnel from the National Capital Region's military ceremonial units.

Require 2 forms of ID: one form must be a Government Issued Photo ID, the other form of ID must verify the individuals name (i.e. social security card, birth certificate, or any club card with the exception of business cards). There is a lot of walking on this trip. We will be walking from the Pentagon City Mall to the Pentagon via a tunnel (10 minute walk) and then an additional 1 ½ miles at the Pentagon. Lunch will be on your own at the Pentagon City Mall.

Date: Friday, November 16

Registration closes Friday, Nov. 2

No changes to the roster can be made after Nov. 2; when you register for this trip you use your name as it appears on the Government Issued Photo ID that you will be using on the day of the tour.

Time: 8:30 a.m.-approximately 3:30 p.m.

Cost: $25 per person
